

N. VROUYR
ANNO 1917

Shirvan Kilim

The Shirvan district was well-known for its fine production of rugs and kilims. The local villagers produced fascinating masterpieces till the Soviets transplanted the handicraft into workshops under state control. No space was left for poetry and personal touches.