

N. VROUYR
ANNO 1917

Kurdi Guchang

ref. 34337

363 x 232 cm

11' 10<sup>7</sup>/<sub>8</sub>" x 7' 7<sup>3</sup>/<sub>8</sub>"

Many Kurds live in Eastern Iran in the Khorassan province. The style of their work is easy to identify. In the area of Gooshang they produce souple and rather coarse village rugs. Red is the main colour. Geometrical patterns remind of the Caucasus but there is undeniably an influence from the Baluchi and the Turkoman tribes.